

HAIKU SOCIETY OF AMERICA

Samples of Winning Haiku

Harold G. Henderson Award for Best Unpublished Haiku

Sponsored by the Haiku Society of America

Reprinted with permission from the authors

no escaping
this moonlight—
Pompeii

- Scott Mason

Thanksgiving—
fifteen minutes
of mince pie

- John Stevenson

Navajo moon
the coyote call
not a coyote

- Garry Gay

season of lights
the postman
leans to the wind

- Ellen Compton

All Souls Day... my name called
from the front gate

- Michele L. Harvey

child's wake
the weight
of rain

- Francine Banwarth

whalebone
from a beach near Savoonga—winter rain

- Billie Wilson

meteor shower . . .
a gentle wave
wets our sandals

- Michael Dylan Welch

Indian summer
a spent salmon
washes ashore

- w.f. owen

loon calls
my daughter drawing circles near the fire

- Marjorie Buettner